Introduction

Certificates are provided by awarding bodies after examination results have been confirmed. Certificates always remain the property of the awarding bodies.

Purpose of the procedure/policy

The purpose of this procedure/policy is to confirm how Heles School issues examination certificates to candidates and the policy for the retention of any unclaimed/uncollected certificates in compliance with JCQ regulations.

Issue of certificates

Heles School will:

- obtain and maintain accurate candidate contact information to ensure the correct and secure despatch of certificates (GR 5.14)
- distribute certificates to all candidates without delay and regardless of any disputes (GR 5.14)
- not withhold any certificate without prior permission from the relevant awarding body which will only be given in very exceptional circumstances (GR 5.14)
- keep a record of the certificates that are issued (GR 5.14)
- return any certificates requested by the awarding bodies as certificates always remain the property of the awarding bodies (GR 5.14)

The receipt of certificates from awarding bodies and arrangements for the issue of certificates to candidates is managed by Kristina Packer - Exams Officer.

Arrangements for the issue of certificates

Certificates are received in centre from all awarding bodies. They are checked and collated in candidate order number and placed in an envelope. One per candidate.

A signing sheet is produced from the MIS system.

- One sheet per tutor group including consortium and PSV
- One sheet for leavers (one for Year 11 and one for Year 13)

The certificates for students still on roll are given to the tutor to hand out and to obtain a signature for collection.

All certificate signing sheets and uncollected certificates are returned to the Exams Office after a short period (date to be given at the time). These are then locked away in the Exams Office.

All signing sheets are retained.

Candidates are informed of the arrangements for the issue of certificates as follows:

- Students are informed via a Notice board announcement or social media announcement, this is backed up with additional information given in their results envelopes. These envelopes are given in person on results day, any uncollected results with associated information is mailed out to the candidate

Where unable to claim/collect certificates under the normal arrangements

Candidates may arrange for certificates to be collected on their behalf by providing the EO with written or email permission/authorisation; authorised persons must provide photographic ID evidence on collection of certificates

Record of issued certificates

All certificate signing sheets and uncollected certificates are returned to the Exams Office after a short period (date to be given at the time). These are then locked away in the Exams Office.

All signing sheets are retained.

- destroy any unclaimed certificates after retaining them for a minimum of 12 months (GR 5.14)
- destroy certificates in a confidential manner or may return them to the respective awarding body (GR 5.14)
- retain a record of certificates that have been destroyed for four years from their date of destruction (GR 5.14)
- (where applicable) inform candidates that some awarding bodies do not offer a replacement certificate service and in such circumstances the awarding body will issue a Certifying Statement of Results which will provide an accurate and complete record of results for all qualifications covered by the original certificate (GR 5.14)
