Hele's School

Statement of principles

This policy has been written taking into account the DfE Guidance 'Advice on school security: Access to, and barring individuals from school premises' December 2012. The term 'Parents' is used throughout this policy to denote Parents/Carers and visitors to Hele's School.

At Hele's School, we value the positive relationships forged with Parents. We encourage close links with Parents and the community and believe that students benefit when the relationship between home and Hele's School is a positive one. We also strive to make School a place where as adults we model for students the behaviour we teach and expect. In general, we place a high importance on good manners, positive communication and mutual respect.

Almost all Parents to Hele's are keen to work with us and are supportive of School. However, on very rare occasions the behaviour of a small number of Parents falls short of what we expect. This sometimes manifests itself in aggression or abuse towards members of the Hele's School community. This can be in written communication (including social media), on the telephone or in face-to-face incidents.

In these situations, we expect members of staff to behave professionally, attempting to defuse the situation where possible and seeking the involvement as appropriate of other colleagues. Staff who face these situations have licence to end any conversation (face to face or on the telephone). They should then refer the incident to their immediate Line Manager or a member of the Senior Leadership Team and the Principal. The Principal will take appropriate action or invoke the provisions of this policy.

The overriding principle is, however, that all members of the School community have the right to work or be in School without fear of aggression or abuse from Parents. The Local Governing Board has a requirement to protect staff and students from such aggression.

Definition of unacceptable behaviour

We consider that aggressive, abusive or insulting behaviour or language from a Parent presents a risk to staff or students. Unacceptable behaviour is such that makes a member of staff or student feel threatened. This can be through face-to-face contact, on the telephone or in written communication (including social media). The following is not an exhaustive list but seeks to provide illustrations of such behaviour:

- any kind of insult as an attempt to demean, embarrass or undermine
- any kind of threat
- raising of voice so as to be intimidating
- physical intimidation, e.g. by standing very close or the use of aggressive hand gestures
- use of foul or abusive language
- any kind of physical abuse

If a Parent behaves in an unacceptable way towards a member of the Hele's School community, the Principal will assess the level of risk before deciding on a future course of action. The course of action will be reasonable and commensurate with the assessed level of risk.

Hele's School

Risk Assessment

The Principal will carry out a risk assessment in order to decide about the level of response. In all cases the response will be reasonable and proportionate. The Principal will consider the following questions:

- What form did the abuse take?
- What evidence is there?
- What do witnesses say happened?
- Are there previous incidents to take into consideration?
- Do members of staff/students feel intimidated by the Parent's behaviour?
- Is there any evidence of provocation?
- How high is the assessed risk that this will be repeated or there will be retaliation at the School's action? (low, medium, high).

Recording of Incidents

Staff/students subject to abuse and witnesses will make written statements about incident(s), which will be kept in a file with subsequent letters. This file will be kept by the Principal's PA. Depending on an assessment of the risk of retaliation to witnesses or individuals, redacted statements made by adults may be made available to the Parent if requested.

School's response

The progress and wellbeing of the Parent's child(ren) will be fully considered. Actions taken against the Parent will be reasonable and proportionate. The Parent will have the opportunity to put their views forward at every stage. In the case of the imposition of conditions or a ban from School, robust review processes involving the Chair of Governors and then the Local Governing Body are in place to ensure fairness.

Following the completion of the risk assessment, the Principal will decide the level of action to be taken. Actions will include the following:

1. Clarify to the Parent what is considered acceptable behaviour by the School

In some instances, it may be appropriate simply to ensure the Parent is clear about behaviour standards expected by the School. This could be explained by letter from the Principal. This letter may contain a warning about further action if there are further incidents. The Parent will be invited to write to the Principal with his/her version of events within 10 working days. Depending on the Parent's response a meeting may then be held to discuss the situation and how this can be avoided in future.

2. Invite the Parent to an informal meeting to discuss events

This could be helpful to discuss and defuse the situation.

The safety and well-being of those attending such a meeting must be carefully considered. Members of School staff will always be accompanied by at least one other colleague at any such meeting. Consideration should be given to the seating arrangements, and care taken to ensure exits cannot be blocked by a Parent who could potentially become aggressive.

The main points of discussion and any agreed actions should be noted, and a follow-up letter or e-mail sent to confirm the School's expectations and any agreed actions.

3. Impose conditions on the Parent's contact with the School and its staff

Although fulfilling a public function, schools are private places. The public has no automatic right of entry. Parents of enrolled students have an 'implied licence' to come onto Hele's School premises at certain stated times. It is for schools to define and set out the extent of such access. Parents exceeding this would be trespassing.

Depending on the type, level or frequency of the unacceptable behaviour, the Principal may consider imposing conditions on the Parent's contact with School. These conditions may include (but this is not an exhaustive list):

- being accompanied to any meeting with a member of School staff by a member of the Senior Leadership Team
- restricting contact by telephone to named members of the Senior Leadership Team
- restricting written communications to named members of the Senior Leadership Team
- restricting attendance at School events to those where the Parent will be accompanied by a member of the Senior Leadership Team
- any other restriction as deemed reasonable and proportionate by the Principal.

In this case, the Parent will be informed by letter from the Principal the details of the conditions that are being imposed. The Parent would then be given 10 working days from the date of that letter to make representations in writing about the conditions to the Chair of Governors. The Chair of Governors would then decide whether to confirm or remove the conditions. This would be communicated to the Parent in writing within 10 working days of the date of the Parent's letter.

If the decision is to confirm the conditions imposed, this decision will be reviewed by the Local Governing Body after approximately six months (and every six months after that, if appropriate). The Parent will be invited to make written representation to the Governors. This, and the evidence from the Principal, will be considered at a meeting of the Local Governing Body. Governors may decide to maintain, extend or remove the conditions. The decision of the review will be communicated to the Parent by the Clerk to the Governors within 10 days of the date of the meeting.

When deciding whether it will be necessary to maintain, extend or remove the conditions, Governors will give consideration to the extent of the Parent's compliance with the conditions, any appropriate expressions of regret and assurance of future good conduct received from him/her, and any evidence of the Parent's co-operation with School in other respects.

4. Imposing a ban

Where other procedures have been exhausted and aggression or intimidation continues OR where there is an extreme act of violence then School may consider banning the individual from the premises. This will include banning a Parent from accessing Hele's School staff by written communication, telephone or face-to-face.

In these circumstances, the individual would be advised in writing by the Principal that a provisional ban is being imposed. The Parent would then be given 10 working days from the date of that letter to make representations about the ban in writing to the Chair of Governors. The Chair of Governors would then decide whether to confirm or remove the ban. This would be communicated to the Parent in writing within 10 working days of the receipt of their letter.

If the Chair's decision is to confirm the ban, Parents in these circumstances will be offered an annual meeting about their child's progress, usually with the Principal or a nominated member of Senior Leadership Team.

A decision to impose a ban will be reviewed by the Local Governing Body after approximately six months (and every six months after that, if appropriate). The Parent will be invited to make written representation to the Governors; this, and the evidence from the Principal, will be considered at a meeting of the Local Governing Body. Governors may decide to remove the ban, extend the ban or impose conditions on Parent's access to School. The decision of the review will be communicated to the Parent by the Clerk to the Governors within 10 days of the date of the meeting.

In deciding whether to remove or extend the ban or impose conditions, Governors will give consideration to the extent of the Parent's compliance with the ban, any appropriate expressions of regret and assurance of future good conduct received from him/her, and any evidence of the Parent's co-operation with School in other respects.

5. Removal from School

Parents who have been banned from School premises and continue to cause a nuisance will be deemed to have committed a section 547 offence. They will be considered as trespassers. In these circumstances the offender may be removed from School. This may be carried out by a Police Officer of person authorised by the Local Governing Body. Legal proceedings may be brought against the Parent.

6. Complaints policy

Any Parental complaint that arises from incidents of abusive behaviour will be dealt with under the Complaints Policy, a copy of which can be found on the Hele's School website in the 'School Information' section on the Hele's School website, <https://www.heles.plymouth.sch.uk/>.

Model Letter 1 Warning (sent by Principal)

Recorded delivery

Dear

I have received a report about your conduct Hele's School on (enter date and time or details). This appears to fall far short of that we would expect of a Parent of a student at School.

(Add factual summary of the incident and of its effect on staff, students, and other Parents.)

I must inform you that the Local Governing Body will not tolerate aggression towards members of the School community and will act to protect its staff and students from any form of abuse or intimidation. I should warn you that any future conduct of this nature could result in School imposing conditions restricting your access to the premises or banning you from contacting or attending Hele's School altogether.

I wish to give you an opportunity to give me, in writing, any comments or observations of your own in relation to the report which I have received about your conduct. Please do so within 10 working days of the date of this letter. These comments may include any assurances you are prepared to give about your future good conduct. There is then an option for us to meet to discuss the situation and how it can be avoided in the future.
